

G - 100 DEFINITION OF UNIT PROPERTIES

- A. All buildings, grounds and property, real or personal, owned by the ECCEC and any item of equipment or real property loaned or leased to the ECCEC Board, shall be deemed as school property by these rules and regulations.
- B. Any item of equipment or real or personal property donated to the ECCEC Unit in general shall be considered as unit property. No such gift may be accepted by any individual in the name of the Unit without the understanding that the gift is unconditional and that the title for such property may be sold or replaced without obligation to the donor.
